Potters Responding to Central Oregon Economic Woes

Who: Central Oregon Potters

What: Central Oregon potters are coming together to respond to the growing economic concerns of Central Oregonians. Many potters themselves are only one pay check away from losing their homes, so they know all too well how economically precarious a time it is for others. Bob Sant, one of the co-founders of Empty Bowls is spearheading this effort (350-0104).

When: October 29th at 2:00

Where: CinderCone Clay Coop, 505 Industrial Way.

History/Mission: NeighborImpact seeks to change the course of each family's future by giving them the tools they need to succeed. NeighborImpact's tool box includes Head Start, weatherization, home repair, energy and rent assistance, financial skills building, savings programs, assisting parents to find child care, tutoring homeless children, providing emergency and transitional housing to homeless families, home buyer education and feeding the hungry.
