Printing Post in Redmond Collecting Food Donations

Who: The Printing Post

What: The Printing Post, Redmond's downtown commercial printer, is hosting a food drive during August. Non perishable food items can be dropped off at their site by anyone wishing to contribute to the food drive. The Printing Post is also offering their customers a 10% discount on all jobs over $25 for a donation of 3 canned food items during August. All collected food items will be distributed to low income residents of Central Oregon through the NeighborImpact Food Bank and a network of local social service agencies.

When: July 5 – August 31 during business hours (M-F 8AM – 5PM)

Where: 639 SW Forrest Ave - Redmond - 548-7101

Summary: The NeighborImpact Food Bank is teaming with The Printing Post in Redmond to collect food during July and August. As well as providing a site for anyone wishing to make a donation the Printing Post will be offering a 10% discount off all jobs over $25 for a donation of 3 non-perishable food items until August 31. All food will benefit Central Oregon residents, and be distributed through a network of social service agencies.
