Senator Wyden Visits Food Bank and Urges Donations

Who: United States Senator Ron Wyden

What: Senator Ron Wyden will visit Central Oregon during his Thanksgiving recess from Washington, DC. His time here will include a trip to NeighborImpact, the regional food bank for Crook, Deschutes, and Jefferson counties. Senator Wyden will discuss the low food supply currently being seen at food banks throughout Oregon, and what role local donors as well as the Federal Government can play replenishing shelves with food.

When: Tuesday Nov 20, 2007 9:30 AM

Where: NeighborImpact – 2303 SW 1st St – Redmond, Or

Why: Senator Wyden has been a long time supporter of anti-hunger initiatives. His visit to NeighborImpact's food bank continues to show his commitment to highlighting hunger and food supply as issues being faced across Oregon.

History/Mission: NeighborImpact seeks to change the course of each family's future by giving them the tools they need to succeed. NeighborImpact's tool box includes Head Start, weatherization, home repair, energy and rent assistance, financial skills building, savings programs, assisting parents to find child care, tutoring homeless children, providing emergency and transitional housing to homeless families, home buyer education and feeding the hungry.
